WHAT THE SYMBOLS MEAN

- Symbol on a dish — this allergen is in the dish.
- On request without — we can leave out the ingredient carrying this allergen; ask when you order.

May contain … — a precautionary statement per allergen: it does not belong in the dish, but may end up in it unintentionally, according to the label of a product or in our kitchen.

The fourteen allergens and their symbol

Egg, Cereals containing gluten, Lupin, Milk (incl. lactose), Mustard, Tree nuts, Peanuts, Crustaceans, Celery, Sesame, Soy, Fish, Molluscs, Sulphur dioxide and sulphites

A letter beside the symbol says which kind it is.

Cereals containing gluten: T = Wheat (incl. spelt and khorasan wheat), R = Rye, G = Barley, H = Oats

Tree nuts: A = Almond, H = Hazelnut, W = Walnut, C = Cashew, Pe = Pecan, Pi = Pistachio, Pa = Brazil nut, M = Macadamia

These symbols are our own drawings. There is no official set of allergen pictograms; the name in this legend is what counts.

ABOUT OUR KITCHEN

Ours is not an allergen-free kitchen. “On request without” means we leave the ingredient out, not that the dish is prepared separately. If you have a serious allergy, please tell our staff before you order — then we can look at what is possible together.
